HAPPY, CONFIDENT AND SUCCESSFUL LEARNERS; WELL PREPARED FOR LIFE.

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that you've all had a good week and are looking forward to this hugely exciting weekend. I'm sure that, like me, you are all still buzzing after Wednesday night's result! It will be absolutely amazing if we can begin our last full week of school with the England football team being crowned as Champions of Europe so everything crossed for the positive result that we all crave. What a huge achievement that would be!

Win or lose though, I am more than happy for your child to come to school on Monday wearing an England top or t-shirt of any description or to wear any red and white clothing if they haven't got an England top or t-shirt. Shorts and trainers will also be allowed on that day. Alternatively, your child can wear their school uniform but have small England flags painted on their faces. It would be such a shame not to mark our pride in what our national team has achieved and to see this as cause for celebration. Please only wear what your child already has at home and do not go to any additional expense.

Talking of huge achievements, I want to take this opportunity to say a massive well done to one of our Year 5 pupils: Sam Cuthbertson. In June, Sam climbed all the way to the top of Mount Snowdon in Wales which stands at a whopping 1085 metres (3560 feet)! In doing so, Sam raised an incredible £2100.00 for Cancer Research UK.

The decision to complete this challenge was made in response to his best friend: Thomas losing both of his grandparents recently to cancer. Sam saw the effect that this sad loss had had on his friend and was adamant that he wanted to do something to try and make a difference.

Without doubt, through this selfless act, Sam has demonstrated a level of kindness and empathy for others that we at The Coppice are incredibly proud of. These are the character traits that we try very hard to instil in all of our children so, when one of them chooses to do something like this without being asked to, it is important that it is both recognised and celebrated. Well done Sam!

Sam's mum: Jenny and his dad: Simon would like to say a massive thank you to everyone at the school and in the community for getting behind him and supporting Sam in the way that they did.

Below you will see pictures of Sam at the bottom of the mountain and half way up it. Unfortunately, we can't show you one of him at the summit because it was so foggy at the top that Sam was hidden by the clouds! Nevertheless, you can see the summit in the distance and see just how high the mountain he climbed is.

Finally, I want to mention again that next week, on Friday, you will be receiving your child's school report. This will be emailed to you directly by your child's Class Teacher so please make sure that you look out for this as, obviously, this report will detail your child's achievements and progress this year.

I will also be sending out a communication next week that gives key information that you need to know for September such as drop-off and pick-up arrangements, in light of the recent Government announcement that the bubble system can end so please make sure that you read this closely.

That just leaves me to say, have a great weekend everyone and COME ON ENGLAND!

Kind regards,

Mr.Hutt

STAR OF THE WEEK

OUR LOST PROPERTY BOX IS OVERFLOWING!

Our lost property box (in our office lobby) looks like this !

At the end of term we will be disposing of any property left in our box. Un-named uniform will be donated to the PTA for a second hand uniform shop next school year and any other un-named items, such as hoodies, coats etc will be taken to a charity shop.

Please come and have a look through and retrieve any items which may belong to your child before it's too late! The box will be removed on Friday 16th July so please come before then.

The majority of clothing in our lost property is un-named. As you can imagine it is impossible to return items to the right child if there is no means of identifying them. Please see the next page for a company you could use to purchase stick on or iron name tags.

You can raise money for our PTA if you buy your clothing name tags from MyNameTags.com
