This week we have been...

- Having fun taking part in 'Dough Disco'. The children have been rolling, squashing, patting and squeezing playdough to music!
- Learning about the concept of 'empty'.
- Meeting the 'Animal Lady's' animals. The children listened brilliantly and enjoyed meeting a snake, chameleon, pygmy hedgehog and an owl.
- Learning about the artist Piet Mondrian and having a go at painting in his style.
- Learning about doctors and nurses as part of our 'People who help us' topic.

- The Coppice Book Fair is next week from Monday 18th March to Thursday 21st March, from 3.15pm - 4pm each day. Please look out around school for more information! (Please note that regrettably World Book Day vouchers cannot be used at the Book Fair.)
- We will be holding an Easter Bonnet Parade in the last week of term and ask that children make an Easter bonnet at home to bring in for this. We will provide more details nearer the time.
