

Hello,

Homework:

Mathematics: The homework this week is on fractions, decimals and percentages. The table will need to be completed in the book and not on the sheet. The children are expected to complete their homework for Monday.

Spellodrome: The children are expected to achieve 500 points weekly. In addition to this, they are expected to complete the look, say, cover, write and cover tasks in their homework diary.

There will be no new spelling rule this week and on Monday the children will be tested on rules previously learnt.

Reading: Children should continue to read at least three times per week; parents should denote all reading with a daily signature in your child's homework diary.

Some children also have additional comprehension sheet homework to help support their reading development.

Topic: There is no compulsory homework for topic. However, optional homework project can be completed at any point this half-term. Furthermore, you could support your child's learning by reading, discussing and quizzing the content on the knowledge organiser.

This topics this half term

Science

We will be looking at light. We will be focussing on how light travels, shadows, reflection and reflection.

History/Geography

We will be looking into the World War 2, with a particular focus on the holocaust and the persection of the Jewish people. We will also be looking at different countries that were involved in WW2.

Reminders:

ThinkTank

This half term we will be visiting the Thinktank museum linked to our science and history lessons. We will be going to the Thinktank on Monday 27th January. The coach will depart from school at 9.00am. Children will need to come to school at the usual time and in their school uniform. They will need to bring a packed lunch, if your child requires a packed lunch to be provided by the school, then please let your child's class teacher know.

The children will then return to school on time for the usual 3.15pm pick up time.

Malvern payments

All deposits should now have been paid for Malvern. If you would like your child to go and have not paid the deposit, then please see your child's class teacher as soon as possible.

There will be a parent information meeting about this trip in the summer term. We will contact you closer to the time to confirm the date and time of the meeting.

Thank you,

Miss Cox, Miss Gatfield and Mr Laight
