

15th January 2018 Our Week Ahead

Our week ahead - What are we going to be learning?

- We will be following footprints to find something exciting!
- We are going to be learning lots of new vocabulary about dinosaurs.
- All about dinosaurs.
- Reading rhyming dinosaur stories.
- The different names of dinosaurs.
- Discussing how dinosaurs were alive a long time ago, but are now extinct.
- Looking at different characteristics of dinosaurs (e.g. sharp teeth, long tail).
- Reading and making 'teen' numbers with numicon.
- Adding 2 sets by choosing 2 different coloured objects and representing the total using a '10 frame'.

Notices

We will be walking next door to the library on Tuesday 16th January. RT -12:40 / RD - 1pm / RA - 1:30pm. We will need parent helpers please let us know if you can help as we can only go if we have parent helpers. Please see separate letter.

Forest Rangers: Children must have gloves, hats and spare socks please.

Please remember to sign up to the emailed version of the whole school newsletter. It will no longer be printed off each week. We will still send the Reception newsletter via communication books but a copy is also always available on the new school website.

100% attendance

Well done to all the children who received their bronze star badge for a full attendance during the autumn term. You can wear them on your jumpers to school but don't lose them -you only get one! If you didn't get one try and get one this term, if you did keep it up for a silver badge!

Homework

We have enjoyed the story of the owl babies this week, can you find out a fact about a bird. It maybe where the bird lives, what it likes to eat, what it looks like. We will share these at forest rangers next week.

Diary Dates:

We will be having a trip to visit Birmingham airport and are delighted we get to go with our year 6 buddies! Please see the attached letter.

World Book Day is Thursday 1st March, the children can dress up as their favourite book character.

Do you have any bird feed (it must be nut free) that you would like to donate? We would like to feed the birds next week.
