

26th January 2017

John Ellis

John Ellis is the best and most famous footballer of all time, who plays for Manchester City and is an England captain. Nearly everyday he is idolised by fans all over the world. Read on to find out more.

Childhood

John Ellis was born on January 2nd 1785 and raised in Manchester. His father Jake thought he was so good at football that he knew John would be the best footballer in history.

Marriage and children

At the age of 19, John married Suzanna and had their first child, Eddie, who was named after his great grandfather. A few years later, the couple had twins Peter and Jake who loved to play football.

Adult hood

The manager from Manchester City thought John Ellis was an outstanding player. Many consider him to be the best player in the world. The next day he had to go to Las Vegas to play Real Madrid in the Champions League. John had scored 4 and David Silva scored 2. They won 6-4.

Later career

John Ellis died in 1815 with a drug overdose. The funeral was on the 26th April 1815, There was fans worldwide that had came to his funeral. Additionally his father died with a heart attack. Before he died he had a successful season where he hadn't ~~lost~~ lost a game. Also he won the player of the year award.

What could the future have been for John Ellis?

Even though he was a footballer, he could have been an actor or designed his own clothes such as football kits. He could even make his own tv shows.